

Intermountain Wild Horse & Burro Advisors, Inc.
in conjunction with the Bureau of Land Management is proud to present

4th Annual Wild Horse Festival of Learning

May 13 – 16, 2008 – South Jordan Equestrian Park

The 4th annual Wild Horse Festival of Learning will be held in conjunction with the Utah Wild Horse & Burro Festival and Show. The Festival of Learning will include 3½ days of “hands-on” wild horse gentling and training activities, and will culminate with a wild horse adoption on Friday evening.

* We will also feature a “field trip” to the Salt Lake Regional wild horse facility in Butterfield Canyon, and a field trip to a wild horse HMA.*

Featured Clinicians:

Brent Huyett – Midland, MI

Cliff Tipton – Erda, UT

Kitty Lauman – Prineville, OR

 Come adopt a mustang and have the opportunity to gentle it yourself, under the guidance of experienced clinicians and advisors.

For additional information, please contact:

Janet Tipton, Program Director: (801) 554-4431, email iwhba@wirelessbeehive.com

- Registration is limited to 30 participants so “early” registration is strongly advised. Cost for the entire program, $100.00/individual (IWHBA member) or $150.00/individual (Non-IWHBA member).
 - Spectators welcome. Registration fee required for participation.
 - Visit our web site at www.iwhba.org
 - Or BLM’s web site at: www.ut.blm.gov

Proud Sponsors

Intermountain Wild Horse & Burro Advisors and the Wild Horse Festival of Learning are programs of IWHBA – 4912 N. Hazel Circle, Erda, UT 84074, a Utah non-profit corporation.

